ORAL JUDGMENT

Rule. Mr.Y.V.Shah waives service of Rule on behalf of respondent. The matter is taken up for final hearing as it pertains to the prayer of the petitioner of giving her appointment on compassionate grounds. Heard the learned counsel for the respondent and perused the Special Civil Application.

2. The father of the petitioner, who was serving in the respondent-Municipality, died on 14.11.95 while in service. The petitioner made an application to the respondent for giving her appointment on compassionate ground but the appointment was not given to her. The learned counsel for the respondent states that the requisite information which is sought for from the petitioner by the respondent has not been furnished by her. In the Special Civil Application, it is admitted that the respondent has sought certain information from the petitioner but the petitioner has given out that the necessary and requisite information as demanded by the respondent has been furnished. Be that as it may, this Special Civil Application is disposed of with the directions that in case the respondent feels that some information is to be taken from the petitioner, then a registered letter may be sent to her within a period of seven days from today and on receipt of that letter, the petitioner shall furnish all the requisite information as desired by respondent, which are in her knowledge and possession, within a period of one month next, and thereafter the respondent shall decide the question of giving the appointment to the petitioner on compassionate ground in accordance with law, within one month thereafter.

3. The Special Civil Application and Rule stand disposed of in aforesaid terms with no order as to costs.
